Safar Inn Signs Three-Year Contract with HotAir Network Group

Safar Inn purchases existing HotAir hotel property in Palm Bay, Florida.

PALM BAY, FL - June 13, 2004 -- HotAir Network Group announced today that Safar Inn has acquired the Ramada Plaza in Palm Bay, Florida, an existing HotAir property. Safar Inn immediately signed a three-year contract to continue providing high-speed wireless Internet access to their 132 guest rooms and 10,000 square-foot conference area. Every guest and conference attendee is able to check email, browse the Internet or connect to their corporate VPN with HotAir's secure and reliable wireless connection. With this value-added service, Safar Inn is certain to appeal to local high-tech companies who need space for off-site meetings. Additionally, it will establish the hotel as a preferred site for visiting business travelers.

"This facility is one of the original HotAir customer sites. It was the first hotel in Brevard County to provide free HSIA to its guests. It has provided local businesses with a reputable location for visiting customers to stay for several years," said Steve Gould, President of HotAir Network Group.
